Features:

Realigns the shoulders and the upper back, reducing back pain and returning the back gently to the natural position. It strengthens the trunk by inducing the contraction of the deep muscles by strengthening the muscles and reducing the arching and hump. Ideal if you suffer from posture disorders or diseases such as kyphosis, scoliosis, lordosis and back pain. After a month of use you will have the following improvements: Straight back, straight shoulders, strengthened musculature without postural pain, total absence of insomnia, increased concentration, improved respiratory and sanguine circulation.

Our postural belt in the first hours of use, could be uncomfortable but, don't worry, it's completely normal because it means that it is working correctly and realigning the posture of the shoulders and back. After the first 7 days your body will get used to the regular and natural posture of the spine, guaranteeing you daily well-being.

NOTE:

Unlike the classic correctors that no longer make you use your back muscles when you finish using them, our corrector is specially designed and studied to strengthen the muscles, training them to maintain the correct position once you have finished using them.
